Workshop: How to encode my survey data as Darwin Core

Purpose of the workshop is to educate Ecologists collecting survey data about using Darwin Core as a standard to encode the collected data. It is preliminary focused on location based observation of information about specimen.

- Introduction to GBIF / Darwin Core: History, IPT, How does it work? (20 min)
- Description of the Darwin Core Data Model (30 mins)
  - Concepts/Schemes: Occurrence, Events, Measurements and Facts
  - Darwin Core Terms
  - Content standards: WGS84, simple features, ISO8601, ...
- Hands on: Encode My Data into Darwin Core (based on data brought along) (2 hrs)